

SATSANG

with

Larry Melton and Prajna

Saturday, June 13, 2009 from 10:30 AM until 6:00 PM
Rough and Ready, CA

Larry Melton is a spiritual teacher in the direct lineage of Adyashanti. He offers both satsang for groups and dokusan for individuals as vehicles to assist others in Awakening to the Divine Oneness in daily living.

Prajna was initiated into satsang in 1984. She met Adyashanti in 1997, receiving confirmation to support others to discover "satsang"/peace amidst ordinary life. She parents three children, and meets with groups and individuals. For more see: www.floatingriver.us.

Dispelling the Myths of Enlightenment

This will be a day to relax all conceptual knowledge of "enlightenment", to look within and directly experience your true essence. The greatest barrier to "liberation" is the belief that it is difficult and requires struggle. Spiritual awakening is our natural state, simply overlooked and thought to be in the future. Come and step into this timeless reality - already and always here.
